A Contemporary Testimony: The Fall

Our series continues with a look at humanity's fall into sin (paragraphs 13-17 of the CT). How have we become "victims of our own sins?" How does sin affect "all spheres of life?" And what holds our world together in a sin-filled world? Led by FCC member Kay Aardema

Announcements

Next Sunday

Now that we've been introduced to Jesus and the kingdom of God we'll take a look at Jesus' first miracle in Mark's gospel. West Michigan Teen Challenge will be here to share their music ministry and testify to what God is doing in the lives of their participants.

This Week's Offering is for Christian Haven

Christian Haven has served the senior population with a resident-centered, safe living environment for over 45 years. The environment reflects the Christian values of the original founders. The goal of Christian Haven is to provide a community for older adults that enables them to meet their physical, social and spiritual needs and affirms their dignity and worth.

Help for Haiti

During the month of January you may designate any portion of your offering to go to the relief efforts of the Christian Reformed World Relief Committee. The CRWRC is one of the most efficient and trusted relief organizations in the world. You may also go to www.crwrc.org to give directly.

Food Pantry Volunteer Opportunity!

We need your help in the Food Pantry on Mondays for just two hours two times a month. You choose the time—either 10 a.m. to noon or noon to 2 p.m. What an opportunity—just choose your time and contact Alan at 844-6519 or ahulst@gmail.com.

Stuffed Potato Dinner

Please stay for dinner immediately following the worship service this morning. GEMS and counselors will be serving baked potatoes and lots of fixings as well as salads and desserts. Donations will be accepted for the GEMS ministry.

The boxes in the lobby are ready to accept your items for our college students. Let's pass along notes, treats, school supplies, and hygiene items to our 12 students. If you would like to contribute financially toward gift cards for the students, please mark your donation "college boxes" and drop it in the offering plate either today or January 31. Boxes will remain out on tables in the lobby to accept your donations for the next two Sundays. Our college students include Michelle Bussa, David Don-selar, Samantha Francart, Courtney Grek, Jordan Kossuth, Jessica Landheer, Jimmy Reinhardt, Ben Rosema, JD Rosema, Lauren Sikkenga, David Teunis, and Sarah Youngquist.

Humanity For Prisoners

Spencer Hassevoort, 12-year old son of Scott and Pam Hassevoort, is racing his snowmobile for charity again this year. For the second year in a row, he is allowing HUMANITY FOR PRISONERS to accept pledges on his races. He participates in three categories, and a week ago he won two first-place trophies and a second-place trophy. His next races are scheduled for Saturday, January 30...again he'll be participating in three events on Tamarack Lake in Lakeview, Michigan. You may demonstrate your support of this young man, racing in an adult world, and support an amazing prison ministry all at once! Make your pledges with Doug today. All contributions are tax exempt.
